

State's Dissent on CRE 45-49

The Intelligence Organization of the Department of State dissents from the subject report because it believes that an adequate treatment of the implications of the anticipated desire of a Communist China for international recognition is not possible within the scope of the present paper. The treatment herein accorded this highly complex and technical subject makes for an over simplification which it considers dangerous in view of the important policy decisions inevitably involved in the present Chinese situation.

ILLEGIB

0000000000000000